Judging the works

Between 15 and 20 December 2018, the jury of the competition, consisting of one teacher from Italy, Spain, Portugal and 2 from Romania will select the works to be awarded. To avoid subjectivism, members of the jury will receive the works of the participants without their names. Creations can be identified by a number that will be assigned to each competitor according to the order of enrollment in the contest.

Announcing Winners: December 21, 2018 prizes are awarded. The jury can award special prizes to poems considered artistically distinct.

► Evaluation Criteria:

- observance of the requested theme and the required editing standards;
- correctness of expression;
- text coherence (linguistic register, style, lexicon);
- the content must respect the theme of this project;
- the impact of the transmitted message;
- creativity (language, figurative, artistic images);
- technical elements, compositional particularities (layout, paragraphs, lyrics).

► The scoring system

Among the poems included in the competition, for each section, the jury will choose lyrical creations considered superior in artistic terms (their number will be later chosen in relation to the number of poems entered in the competition).
